CHURCH NEWS

Don't forget - we now have a small charity shop in the Crossroads Nursery at Hollym, which raises funds for the ministry, on behalf of the three churches in Hollym Holmpton and Easington.

We have had a busy few weeks leading up to our Harvest Tea Party, coffee morning and auction, and our thanks go to all who have helped, in any way, with these activities.

The tea party services have been really well attended and we have welcomed new families.

Also we have been busy updating our leadership training, with a view to working towards authorised lay ministry.

October will be a fairly quiet month for us in church. The Facebook page of the South Holderness Deanery gives details of communion services in other churches. There will be a celebration on Saturday October 7th (bring and share lunch) in the Community Hall at Ottringham to unite what is now a very large group of churches across South Holderness.

Rev Philip West has been doing pilgrimages which have proved increasingly popular. A pilgrimage involves walking between various churches with space for prayer and contemplation in between. In November a service of Remembrance will take place as usual on 12th November at the War Memorial, preceded by morning prayer at 10 am in the church.
